

NEW SOF BOOK

As I Please

by John Pearson

This book is a collection of pieces John Pearson has written for his regular As I Please column in Sofia over the last eight years, together with some longer articles and reviews he has contributed to the magazine since he joined SOF Network in 1992.

Opinionated, self-deprecating, humorous, he has travelled widely and has a passionate interest in all kinds of people's lives and work, as well as in their landscapes and built environments. 'Ever the quantity surveyor', he enjoys precise details. He has a special interest in flying.

Dr John Pearson is a retired Principal Lecturer and Subject Director in Quantity Surveying at Northumbria University. At the Church of St Thomas the Martyr, Newcastle upon Tyne, he is a longstanding churchwarden who believes God is a human creation. He has been a member of SOF Network for thirty years and chair of its board of trustees for ten of them.

The book will be published on July 10th 2022 by SOF Network.

Available at £12 post-free from: SOF Network,
3 Belle Grove Place, Spital Tongues, Newcastle upon Tyne NE2 4LH.

By cheque payable to Sea of Faith or SOF.

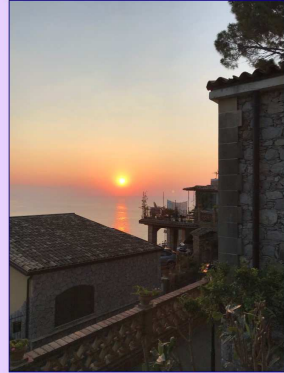

Include note with your name and full postal address.

Or pay £12 online by bank transfer, credit card or PayPal at:

sofn.org.uk/shop/shop.html

When you pay online, email johnsdpearson@gmail.com with your name and full postal address for him to post you the book.

As I Please
John Pearson